

Appvion Operations, Inc. Product Safety Policy

Adopted: June 14, 2018

As part of our commitment to Operational Excellence, Appvion will provide products that will be safe for consumers when used for their intended purpose. Using well established risk assessment methods to understand hazards and potential exposures, we will conduct assessments of our products to ensure that they meet current regulatory requirements and applicable public safety standards.

George Wurtz

President, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer